Signature design

In 2003, José Manuel Ferrero founded estudi{H}ac aiming to bring to life all the ideas that kept popping into his head. Over the past 20 years, he has turned his design atelier into a national and international design benchmark.

"DESIGN FOR VISIONARY CUSTOMERS LOOKING FOR TAILOR-MADE ELEGANCE".

Today, JMFerrero designs for numerous brands such as Kriskadecor, Ondarreta, Varaschin, Sancal, Porcelanosa, Lzf, Vondom, Toulemonde Bochart, Estiluz, Harmony, Toyota, and many more.
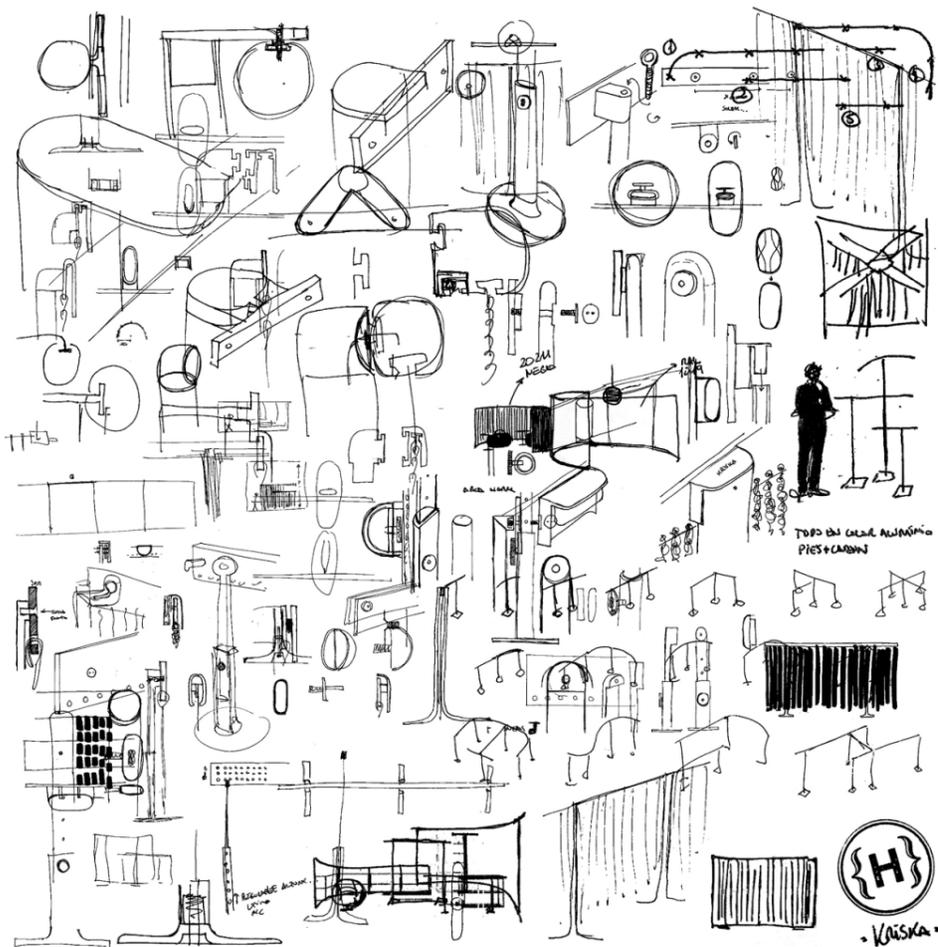

The context

Spaces need to be flexible and adjust to the needs of the moment.

Shared or outdoor spaces are enhanced through the strategic use of modular elements.

Useful rooms all year round with functional designs and materials designed for outdoor exposure.

Therefore, why let walls and ceilings condition the anchoring of our chains?
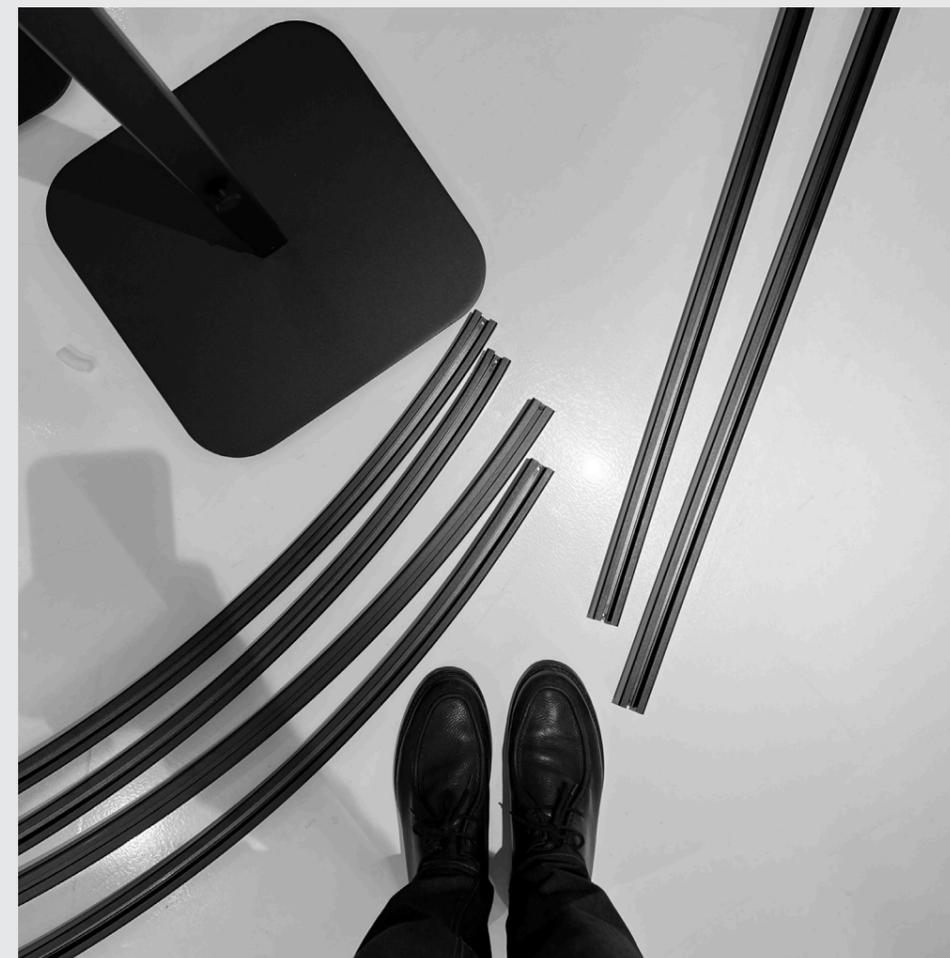

The result

Feel Free is an innovative self-supporting system that allows the installation of Kriskadecor chains in any area without the need for support or fixing.

A system that can be freely configured to suit most needs and locations.

The versatility

Indoor and outdoor use.

Customisable in design, shape and colour.

Creation of light and airy multidisciplinary spaces.

Lightweight partitions that give a feeling of spaciousness.

Effect of light and shadow thanks to the transparency of the links.

Easy to install. No anchorage points required.

Height adjustable.

Robust, yet easy to move.

Facilitates the exchange of curtains.

Other options

Chain linking

The chains can be linked with rings at any height. This option brings rigidity to simulate a fabric. Recommended for outdoor options.
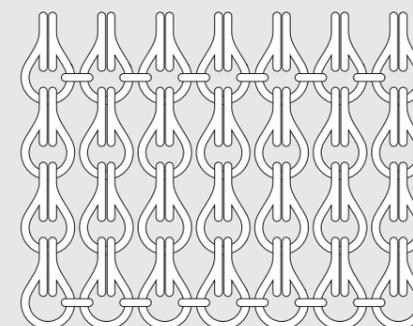

Shaping

Cutting the surface of the chains following straight or curved lines yields surprising effects. The chain can be framed or left free to move.
